Transforming Obstacles into Opportunities

The Alternative Strategies Fund (the "Fund") was up 0.13% in March, 1.55% in Q1 and 3.61% over 3 years. The Fund underperformed the benchmark in the first two periods and outperformed in the three year.

The chart to the lower left shows the allocation of the Fund, which is invested in 5 hedge funds. The allocation between these funds is nearly balanced, with Marshall Wace Eureka Fund making up the largest portion of the fund. YTD all 5 managers are up and had a positive return.

The strategy of Marshall Wace is a traditional Long/Short fund with exposure across 26 global equity markets. As of March 31st the total net exposure was 28.30%. This means that long exposure exceeded short exposure by 28.30%.

The strategy of Hudson Bay is more diverse with exposure to credit, convertibles, event/merger, equity L/S, and volatility.

The Millennium Fund employs equity strategies (RV Fundamental Equity, Quantitative Strategies, Equity Arbitrage) and a fixed income strategy. The exposure between equity and fixed income strategies at the end of Q1 was 80% and 20%, respectively.

Renaissance is a traditional long/short fund, but it is more aggressive than Marshall Wace with total net exposure of 99%.

Brevan Howard Alpha Strategies Master Fund seeks to generate absolute returns through a diversified combination of strategies including relative value and directional, predominantly in developed and emerging fixed income and FX markets.

The Fund's Long/Short strategy has the ability to capitalize on both the downturns and upside of the market which can result in lower volatility and less downside risk involved in a traditional long strategy.
